In the early afternoon we are meeting Japanese Reiki practitioners at a koryu-kai organized for us by the Gendai Reiki Network. If his health allows Hiroshi Doi, founder of the Gendai Reiki style and one of the teachers of Frans Stiene and Oliver Drewes, will also take part. Afterwards we will have a common dinner with the Japanese Reiki participants. In the evening we go back to our hotel in Nara by train.

9th of November 2025 (6th day)

Destination: Mt. Koya

Overnight stay: Nara

Arguably the most mystical of Japan's sacred mountains, Koyasan has hundreds of temples and temple gardens. Mount Koya is an important pilgrimage site for Shingon Buddhism, a form of esoteric or tantric Buddhism introduced to Japan in the 9th century by the monk Kukai (774-835), who after his death became known as Kobo Daishi. Attractions such as Damain Gate, Danjo Garan, Kongobuji temple and Reihokan Museum are close to each other. The roughly 2 km path to Kobo Daishi's mausoleum is lined with ancient trees that are up to a thousand years old, as well as more than 200,000 stone monuments, combining to create a subtle yet profound atmosphere.

10th of November 2025 (7th day)

Destination: Kyōtō

Overnight stay: Mt. Hiei

Moving to Kyōtō by chartered bus, we first visit the Fushimi Inari Taisha Shinto shrine, an avenue of seemingly endless, bright orange torii gates. Next stop is the Shorenin temple. This was in Mikao Usui's time the head temple of the tendai buddhistic community, located at Mt. Hiei, practicing on Mt. Kurama. It is not known for sure where Usui Sensei practiced Zazen for three years before finding enlightenment on Mt. Kurama, but this is one of the most possible locations to be found. Three walking minutes away is Chion-in, the head temple of Jōdo-shu, the pure land or Amida Buddhism. From here the bus brings us directly to our hotel at Mt. Hiei.

11th of November 2025 (8th day)

Destination: Mount Hiei

Overnight stay: Kyōtō

After optional participation at morning service at Konpon-Chudo, you have breakfast, and an organized Zazen workshop. Then you have free time to explore the extensive temple complex Enryaku-ji of the sacred Mount Hiei, known as the mother of Japanese Buddhism. It is believed that Usui Sensei was trained here in tendai buddhism. Especially the temples Jodo-in, Hokke Soji-In, Ninai-do and Joko-in are associated with this philosophy. It is said that in the monasteries there, are still copies of old sutra texts on which Usui Sensei's buddhist name Gyohan could be found. In the afternoon we are brought by minibuses to our next hotel in Kyōtō.

12th of November 2025 (9th day)

Destination: Kyōtō

Overnight stay: Kyōtō

After a twenty minutes tramp ride to Saga Arashiyama station, we walk to the Daikaku-ji temple, established about 1,200 years ago. The next two hours we are guided through the temple, have a Shakyo (Sutra copying) workshop and enjoy a cup of matcha tea. From here we walk to and through the stunning Sagano bamboo forest. Like other spots for the cherry blossom period, the city of Kyōtō attracts tourists for the colored leaves season. One of the best spots to enjoy that is the open public Okochi's Mountain Villa with an impressive garden architecture and breathtaking view over Kyōtō between the wide mountains.

13th of November 2025 (10th day)

Destination: Kyōtō

Overnight stay: Kyōtō

In line with the wishes of the participants on our previous trips, you have a free day today. Our hotel in the shijo-dori street is perfectly located for a short walk to the shopping area in east direction, to visit Teramachi street with the Nishiki food market or stroll to Gion, Kyoto's old geisha district. Alternatively, a visit to the Fukujuen Uji Tea Factory and the Byōdō-in by a short metro trip is recommended. This temple and the garden surrounding is a prime example of the architecture of pure land buddhism. The wooden building from the Heian period (794-1185) in its original state adorns the 10,000 Yen banknote and the 10 Yen coin. Inside it holds many cultural treasures.
